HOME NEWS.

Very dull times.

The weather continues hot and dry.

Daily Statesman on sale at 10 a. m., at San Marcos Book Store.

Warner's Corsets—all sizes, at JOHNSON & JOHNSON'S.

Popular Monthly and Pleasant Hours, at San Marcos Book Store.

Ehrich's Summer Quarterly, at San Marcos Book Store.

THIRTY new glass boxes have been added to the Post Office. A healthy indication.

Try Kirk's Soap—splendid goods, at low prices. JOHNSON & JOHNSON.

TWENTY barrels Molasses at HINZIE'S.

The highest market price paid for oats by WM. GIESSEN.

Nice assorted Cream Laces, just received at JOHNSON & JOHNSON'S.

Go to P. R. Turner Co., for your Cedar Posts and Barbed Wire fencing.

Our Cooking Oil is estimated only half the cost of Lard. G. W. DONALSON & CO.

CARLOAD of Flour—Just received at HINZIE'S.

CIGARS—We are just in receipt of our "TEXAS SETTINGS" Cigars. G. W. DONALSON & Co., Agents.

OAKS CANDIES—Another lot of these fine candies, just received by G. W. DONALSON & Co.

Genuine Singer Sewing Machines, needles, oil, and attachments. J. W. NANCE.

To REDUCE STOCK—We make a general reduction in prices of Hats and Clothing. JOHNSON & JOHNSON.

The summer number of Ehrich's Fashion Quarterly is on our table. Indispensable to the ladies and full of good things for all.

WALL Paper styles 1882 10c to 75c per roll. Last year styles cheaper. J. W. NANCE.

GOLDEN DAYS for June was duly received, and maintains its high character as a favorite of the young folks.

EMANCIPATION day was celebrated on Monday at this place, DuPre, Austin and many other places.

SEE notice of dissolution of partnership of McBride & Walters. The signatures were inadvertently omitted last week, but it now stands corrected.

Go to P. R. Turner & Co., for your wagons. They have the Avery and Caldwell, which are the best in the market. je8-2m

THE Burditt Chapel organ, designed for the Methodist church, if satisfactory, was received several days since by Mr. Hopkins. We presume it will soon be tested, and we don't see how it can fail to please.

MISS RUSSELL has taken the agency for Dorman's Rubber Stamps, inks, pads, etc. Call at San Marcos Book Store. They are useful to those who have constant use for a stamp.

Go to P. R. Turner & Co., for your Clothing. They have a large and well selected stock of every variety, and prices to suit every purchaser.

SEE card of Mr. Lock, the new proprietor of the Exchange Hotel. He has put the house in good order and cleaned up the premises, so it is like quite another place.

SEE was the run on our last week's paper that we are "short," and would be glad if two or three of our subscribers would favor us. We will exchange something of new interest for them.

A HAREBUT having 14 horns may be seen at Reynolds & Daniel's. It was caught in this vicinity. The so-called horns are a sort of warty excrecence.

AMENDE.—Among the matters we overlooked last week was a corrections to the intimation we lately made that San Marcos was no grain market. We learn we were mistaken; that Turner & Co., and Giesen, at least, are large buyers of oats, wheat, etc. We are glad to stand corrected, but the gentlemen ought not to hide their light under a bushel, as they have been doing.

Go to Hinzle's for your supplies of family groceries. Very large purchases by him warrant low prices to his customers. The best articles at lowest prices always.

CAPT. STOREY has favored us with a copy of his address at the late barbecue for publication. It came in too late to be inserted in full this week, but will appear in our next.

Church Notice.

The new Baptist church will be opened for services next Sunday. The first sermon will be preached by the pastor. Appropriate music will be arranged for the occasion. Services begin at 10:30 A. M. All invited to attend.

NEW MUSIC.—Mrs. A. Elmore, the author, has kindly furnished us with the following new pieces: "Where the Dewdrops Brightly Glisten," "A Flower from Father's Grave," "At Baby's Grave Once More," "The Apple Bloom so Fair," "I am Grandma's Darling," "Farewell, Dear Summer Home," "Goldilock's Grandpa's Darling." They are issued in the handsomest style of sheet music—price 40 cts. each. Address the publishers, Speer & Dehnhoff, 717, Broadway, New York.

We regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Julia Dailey, which occurred at her home in San Marcos. Deceased was the wife of Basil Dailey, Esq., and the daughter of Mr. Jas. Manford, of this city. The writer was personally acquainted with Mrs. Dailey, and knew her to be a lady of rare domestic virtues, with a heart overflowing with kindness and sympathy. To her bereaved husband, relatives and friends we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this, their hour of grief and sorrow.—Luling Signal.

For the Free Press.

A Prediction.

In one or two years hence Ingersoll and other intelligent infidels will be convinced of the divinity of the Bible, and the great pyramid in Egypt will hold a higher position in architecture as the Bible now holds in literature. G. VOGLERBANG.

What about Gniteau? We hope our distinguished contributor is not going to let his friend perish without further remonstrance.

We ran down to Austin on Monday. Several large new buildings are in progress there, and the place looks lively. We found it hotter, dryer and dustier than San Marcos.

We intended to return in the evening, but "got left," so had to appeal to the hospitality of Dr. Harn, of the Carrollton House. He is a very clever representative of "My Maryland," and we always find his house very pleasant and homelike, with its wide halls, breezy apartments, and clean, country-like surroundings and excellent table.

THE prizes awarded at the close of Coronal Institute were as follows:

Declaration, gold medal, by Professor Pritchett, awarded to Frank Walsh. Second prize, by Reynolds & Daniel, awarded to Jesse Yates. Recitation—First prize, gold medal, by May B. Walker, awarded to Miss Bennie Walker. Second prize, by Reynolds & Daniel, awarded to Miss Maggie Dibrell. Music—First class, prize, gold medal, by W. H. Robbins, to Miss Emily Joyce. Second class, gold medal, by Mrs. R. O. Rounsavall, to Miss Bennie Walker. To young ladies, in deportment and for neatness, by Mrs. Rounsavall, to Miss Emma Strickland.

In the course of a letter to the Galveston News concerning the closing exercises of our Institute occurs the following passage:

Professor Rounsavall, as an educator and executive officer, has an able coadjutor in his most accomplished lady.

It gives as pleasure to endorse the above. Mrs. R. is evidently the organizing mind, at least in the music department, which stands pre-eminent among the meritorious features of the institution. The proficiency in music of the pupils elicited the admiration of visitors, and for this Mrs. Rounsavall is entitled to most of the honor. Her principal assistant, the excellent and amiable Miss Cara Franklin, is also entitled to much credit in this regard.

Mrs. DUNCAN's school closed on Thursday last. No flourish of trumpets or of strident instruments, or commencement parades announced the event; but then probably the not inconsiderable time required to the getting up of these, was, under the quiet administration of the excellent Mrs. D. and her efficient assistant, Miss Cotten, quite as well devoted to the regular business of progressive teaching, to the real advantage of the pupils. At any rate, we are sure no teacher in any of our schools has more faithfully and conscientiously discharged his or her duty than has Mrs. Duncan, and no one is more deserving from her patrons and the entire community of the plaudits: "Well done, good and faithful servant." She has fairly won a name which is justly held in love and honor by all who know her.

Personals.

Jere Smith has resumed draying.

Miss Mattie Zively, we are glad to notice, has returned home.

Tom Glover has gone on a pleasure trip to St. Louis.

Miss Mattie Heaton's school is out and she is at home again.

Mr. Fromme has a very nice article of honey of his own raising.

Mr. Brewer left on Monday for his new field of labor, Lampasas.

A. B. Dailey, who has been in bad health for some time, is again at the store.

The Pritchett brothers have gone with their families to see "the old folks at home," in Missouri.

Mrs. Gentry's wedding, was the second case in which we have known the enterprising gossips of our town to have been beaten.

Miss Julia Markley, of San Antonio, was among the visitors to the commencement exercises last week.

The confusion incident to the festivities last week caused us to overlook mention of several personal and other matters.

Dr. Harn, of the Carrollton House Austin, has a mocking bird which is the champion singer of his tribe.

Prof. Richardson and daughter Mary leave to-day on a visit to old Virginia. We wish them a pleasant trip and safe return.

Dr. Champion has sold out his drug store to a party who is removing it to Luling. The Doctor we learn will not remain with us.

Elder Leak preached at the Christian church on Sunday, and we think must have impressed his audience with his Christian candor and earnestness.

Mrs. Manlove was on the northward bound train on Monday, having been summoned from San Antonio to Mountain City by the serious illness of her oldest boy.

Mr. Collins, who gave us the big potatoes, wants us to state that he is an Illinois and not an Indiana farmer. Very little if any difference we should say.

We called on Elder Williamson, and family at Austin on Monday, and found them all well. The Elder is still a publican, but we trust not a sinner.

Our friends Mr. and Mrs. Moore have great reason to be proud of the young representative of their house and name, a splendid boy of two months, weighing 15 lbs.

Dr. Baldwin and family returned from the west via this place on Sunday, and left Austin for Huntsville the next, the next morning.

Jno. R. Mathieson, late of Toledo, Ohio, and Mrs. Wilson of Detroit, Mich., who lately came to Austin for their health, both died their on Sunday.

S. B. McBride is now the agent for the sale of the splendid body of land in front of our town, known as the B. O'Kane tract. See advertisement.

We notice by a late Minnesota paper that Col. Stoevoer, who visited our town last winter, is spoken of as a probable candidate for Congress from his district.

We regret to learn that Mr. Brown, formerly with Mr. Hinzle, is in a critical condition having had repeated hemorrhages from the lungs; he is now in Canada, with Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Murchison, by his bright little daughter, recently sent us a sample of his Mississippi beans, which we meant to acknowledge last week; they were the best we have had this season.

The infant child of Mark Rogers attracted considerable attention one day during the proceedings at the Institute by keeping time, with feet and hands, to the music. An incipient musical genius, perhaps.

We notice at the store of P. R. Turner & Co., a portrait of Capt. T's brother in Tennessee. It represents a fine looking gentleman—almost as good looking as the Captain.

Mr. Deming, in his article which we copied last week, spoke of Mr. Wilhelm as the builder of the new court house. This was an error—he is only the supervisor. Donaldson and Rogers are the builders.

Miss Annie Haymes has been "laid up" for some ten days past in consequence of having run a needle into one of her feet. We are glad to learn she is now coming around all right.

Dr. Erhard told us while here that when he was in business here in early times a table spoonful of castor oil would do his customers a year! Also that the first stage coach from Houston to Bastrop, was started in 1846.

Mr. Snyder, printer, of Austin, is blessed with a smart and handsome wife, as bright and neat as a new pin, who is an accomplished type-setter, and assists him in his office. Having so often to look out for assistants in that capacity, we almost envied him his superior good fortune. However the good lady consoled us somewhat by promising to look out for us among the lady printers.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Iglehart & Black having been engaged in the mercantile business in this place, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Signed: E. J. IGLEHART. JAS. W. BLACK.

E. J. IGLEHART will continue the business at the old stand. In connection with the general assortment of merchandise, he will keep a full stock of Saddlery, Harness, etc. Will put up saddles of the best oak tan leather, shop work, warrant all work to be of the best workmanship and as cheap as Austin or San Antonio. Saddle trees of the best Texas make. je1

THANKS to Jacob Sanders for a big beet. It weighed 5 lbs. 1 oz.

A RARE CHANCE.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Dr. G. Marion Cade, in our columns. It would seem to be a rare chance for a profitable investment.

EDITOR FREE PRESS:—It is said "a thing of beauty is a joy forever," and if that be true, then joy will bring eternal in the breasts of our Baptist brethren, who have just completed their beautiful church. They are entitled to all praise, and I may be allowed to express the sincere prayer that in after years many souls washed in the blood of the Lamb may be able to stand up as witnesses for Christ and say: "We were born there!" J. S. GILLET.

The great interest annually manifested in our school commencements is creditable to our people; but would it not be better if the interest were distributed throughout the school term, instead of having so much for mere display in the end?

ATLANTA, Ga. February 10, 1879. Messrs Hutchison & Bro.: I have used your "Neuralgine" in several instances, and find it the best remedy for neuralgia and headache I have ever tried. It relieves the pain, leaves none of those unpleasant effects due to narcotics or other anodynes. I shall always keep it in my office, and take much pleasure in recommending it to my patients. G. S. HOLLAND, M. D., 25 Whitehall, Atlanta, Ga. Hutchison & Bro., Proprietors, Atlanta, Georgia. Sold by Reynolds & Daniel.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership. The partnership heretofore existing between S. B. McBride and G. W. Walters, in this day dissolved by mutual consent. All unfinished business now in our hands will be attended to by S. B. McBride and all claims due or owing said firm will be collected by either of us, and each of us will continue in business at our present office. S. B. MCBRIDE, G. W. WALTERS. je15-3t
